Start Date:

Scheduled Completion Date:

This Enrollment Agreement is for the following Program of study:

Required number of credits:

Required number of courses:

B. Student Status & Definitions:

In this Enrollment Agreement (this "Agreement"), "Degree Program" refers to the program of study elected by a Degree Student. Admission to the English Second Language Program or UoPeople Foundations courses is not admission to a Degree Program; in order to commence studying towards a Degree Program, a student must first be accepted as a Degree Student following completion of the applicable prerequisites described below.

Completion of the Admissions requirements as they appear in the University Catalog, including but not limited to:

1. Completion of the relevant Foundations courses; and
2. Satisfaction of the CGPA Requirement.

Students accepted to UoPeople Foundations are required to complete the UoPeople Foundations courses as a prerequisite for commencing a Degree Program.

This Agreement shall constitute an agreement to enroll as a degree-seeking student at UoPeople, if and only when the above requirements have been met.

Credit earned in the UoPeople Foundations courses will be counted toward the Degree Program requirements, if and only when the above requirements have been met.

A student who successfully completes the UoPeople Foundations courses and meets all other admission requirements to begin studying as a Degree Student will be accepted to the Degree Program. Under such circumstances, the requirements of this Agreement will continue to apply. A student who does not successfully complete the UoPeople Foundations courses, as determined by the University in addition to the requirements set forth above, will not be admitted to the University as a Degree Student; the student's enrollment and this Agreement will terminate.

For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Student" shall include students studying in any course at the University. Unless otherwise indicated, all the requirements and obligations that apply to a Student shall apply to a student taking the UoPeople Foundations courses and a Degree Student.

The period covered by this Agreement shall be as follows: A maximum of 5 years for any Associate's program, starting from the date on which the Enrollment Agreement is signed, 10 years for any Bachelor's program starting from the date on which the Enrollment Agreement is signed, and 5 years for any Graduate program starting from the date on which the Enrollment Agreement is signed.

C. Fees and Charges:

(a) All fees outlined in this Agreement are in US Dollars.

(b) Students are required to pay both the Application Fee and Course Assessment Fees.

University of the People does not charge any tuition to students at this time; however, the applicable fees must be paid. Following are charges for Tuition and Fees for the current academic year:

Application Processing Fee:

$60 per application, as a one-time fee (nonrefundable) per application.

a. For those who saved their spot before March 27, 2022, the total estimated fees are as follows:

Course Assessment Fee for courses which are non-degree or undergraduate level courses (not part of a Graduate program or Graduate non-degree seeking student):

$120 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable).

Course Assessment Fee for courses which are part of a Graduate program (including UoPeople Graduate Foundations, but excluding Masters in IT):

$240 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable).

Tuition:

There are currently no tuition charges to the student.

b. For those who saved their spot after March 27, 2022, the total estimated fees are as follows:

Course Assessment Fee for courses which are non-degree or undergraduate level courses (not part of a Graduate program or Graduate non-degree seeking student):

$120 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable).

Course Assessment Fee for courses which are part of a Graduate program (including UoPeople Graduate Foundations):

$300 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable).

Tuition:

There are currently no tuition charges to the student.

c. For those who saved their spot after January 20, 2024, the total estimated fees are as follows:

Course Assessment Fee for courses which are in non-degree programs (Certificates and English as a Second Language):

$130 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable) for English as a Second Language.

$200 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable) for Certificates.

Course Assessment Fee for courses which are part of an Undergraduate program (including UoPeople Foundations):

$140 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable).

Course Assessment Fee for courses which are part of a Graduate program (including UoPeople Graduate Foundations):

$350 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable) for the Master of Education in Advanced Teaching – M.Ed. Degree.

$400 per student per Course Assessment Fee (nonrefundable) for the Master of Business Administration - MBA Degree and Master of Science in Information Technology – MSIT Degree.

Tuition:

There are currently no tuition charges to the student.

(i) Application Fee; University Grant:

The Application Fee must be paid by an applicant along with his or her application for enrollment. Applicants eligible for a scholarship upon admittance may be awarded a University Grant to waive the Application Fee. The availability and award of University Grants shall be determined by UoPeople.

(ii) Course Assessment Fees

The Course Assessment Fee for each course must be paid by the conclusion of the final Examination Period of each term.

If a student completes the final Examination and the Course Assessment Fee is not paid by the end of the term, a financial hold will be placed on the student's file. In this event, the student will not be permitted to register or continue taking courses until all outstanding payments are made and the hold is removed. Students are encouraged to plan, anticipate and budget for all Course Assessment Fee payments to avoid interruption of their academic schedule.

The Course Assessment Fee is not refundable for students who take the exam. Students who drop or withdraw from a course within the required deadline are not required to pay the Course Assessment Fee. Students who remain in their course beyond the course withdrawal deadline are not eligible for a refund of the Assessment Fee. The Course Assessment Fee is only refundable in instances where the University has canceled a student's course or if the student's work was not assessed at all during the course.

NOTICE CONCERNING CALIFORNIA STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.”

The University reserves the right to change the cost of the Application Fee and the Course Assessment Fees. The amount of the Course Assessment Fees will be reviewed annually, and any change to the fee amount will be effective as of September 1 for each academic year. Students will be notified of any change in fees no later than June 1 prior to the start of each academic year.

(iii) Total Estimated Fees

Total estimated fees* are based on the current Tuition and Fee schedule set forth in the Section above and include the minimum fees required in order to complete the Degree Program, including the UoPeople Foundations courses fees. *The above estimated fees are based on the successful completion of all courses (assuming a single-sitting for each course). Students who are required to repeat courses will incur an additional Course Assessment Fee for each additional course taken.

For the degree programs, fees shown in the table above include the minimum required courses taken in the UoPeople Foundations.

(iv) Payment Terms and Financial Arrangements

All fees are the responsibility of the student. The University accepts no responsibility for credit card, bank, money transfer, check or other fees or charges incurred by the student in paying fees to the University. Deadlines for payment of fees are set out in sections C (i) and C (ii) above.

D. False Statements, Misrepresentation, Fraud

The University reserves the right to deny admission or take any other disciplinary action, including terminating enrollment, if an applicant makes any false or misleading statements, or encourages another applicant to make false or misleading statements, including with respect to the obtaining of a University Grant, regardless of whether such grant is awarded.

E. Mandatory Disclosures and Signatures:

TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS TO UNIVERSITY OF THE PEOPLE.

UoPeople accepts credit transfers, according to its policy, which can be found at the UoPeople.edu website. The transferability of credits and credentials is at the complete discretion of the University and may include a transfer fee. The credits which were unofficially approved will be officially approved and transfer into the student's transcript only once the student has completed at least one degree course at UoPeople and only after paying an Evaluation Fee of $17 per accepted course.

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT UNIVERSITY OF THE PEOPLE.

The transferability of credits you earn at University of the People is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the degree you earn in Business Administration, Computer Science, Health Science, Master of Business Administration, and/or Master of Education is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the credits and/or degree that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason, you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer or enroll after attending University of the People to determine if your courses and/or degree will transfer or be accepted. Those requiring an official transcript from UoPeople in order to transfer to a different institution who have not yet graduated from UoPeople will be required to pay a $15 fee.

NOTICE CONCERNING UNIVERSITY OF THE PEOPLE POLICIES AND PERFORMANCE DATA.

Prior to signing this Agreement, you must be given a catalog or brochure and a School Performance Fact Sheet, which you are encouraged to review prior to signing this Agreement. These documents contain important policies and performance data for this institution. This institution is required to have you sign and date the information included in the School Performance Fact Sheet relating to completion rates, placement rates, license examination passage rates (if applicable), salaries or wages, and the most recent three-year cohort default rate (if applicable) prior to signing this Agreement. The School Performance Fact Sheet is provided to you as part of your online application.

Student Initials:

I certify that I have received the University Catalog, School Performance Fact Sheet, and information regarding completion rates, placement rates, license examination passage rates (if applicable), salary or wage information, and the most recent three-year cohort default rate (if applicable), included in the School Performance Fact sheet, and have signed, initialed, and dated the information provided in the School Performance Fact Sheet.

THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS ARE A PART OF THIS AGREEMENT

G. Terms and Conditions:

1. General. This Agreement is a legally binding agreement when signed by the student and accepted by the University. By signing this Agreement, students acknowledge that they have been given reasonable time to read and understand it and that they have been given: (a) a written statement of the refund policy including examples of how it applies; and (b) a University Catalog and/or a link to a University Catalog including a description of the course or educational service including all material facts concerning the University and the Program or course of instruction that are likely to affect their decision to enroll.

2. Progress. A student must successfully complete his or her required prerequisite courses as determined by the University in order to be accepted to the Degree Program. This includes but is not limited to all required Foundations courses. Additionally, students must meet the CGPA requirement. This Agreement shall only take effect if and only when students have completed the required Foundations courses and have met the CGPA requirement.

The University reserves the right to terminate a student's enrollment if a student does not meet the requirements of the Degree Program or fails to make Satisfactory Academic Progress as described in the University Catalog.

All students are required to successfully complete studies in the UoPeople Foundations courses in order to be accepted to the University as an undergraduate / graduate Degree Seeking Student. A minimum passing grade may be prescribed by the University.

A Degree will be granted to a student who successfully completes each course in their academic Degree Program.

3. Student's Right to Cancel.

A student has the right to cancel this Agreement at any time. A student's notice of cancellation must be received by the University in writing via email to student.services@uopeople.edu. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent.

Notice of Cancellation is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by this Agreement or to continue his or her attendance at the University. If the student cancels this Agreement, the student shall not be liable to the University and the University shall refund any money paid through attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, excepting any non-refundable fees.

4. Refund Information.

The Application Fee is not refundable except in instances where applicants withdraw their application for admission before an admissions decision is made. Applicants may write a formal request for a refund of the Application Fee to their personal Admissions Advisor. If approved, refunds will be available to the applicant within 30 days of the submission of the formal request and the refund will be issued using the same payment method used by the applicant to pay the fee.

Students have the right to withdraw from a course of instruction at any time. Students who remain in their course beyond the course withdrawal deadline are not eligible for a refund of the Assessment Fee. The Assessment Fee is only refundable in instances where the University has canceled a student's course or if the student's work was not assessed at all during the course. The Student Tuition Recovery Fund fee paid on behalf of eligible Californians is not refundable and any Course Assessment Fee refund will be reduced by the amount of any applicable Student Tuition Recovery Fund fee. The University will not refund Course Assessment Fees paid for exams that have been taken.

AS UNIVERSITY OF THE PEOPLE CURRENTLY DOES NOT CHARGE TUITION FOR PROGRAMS, THERE ARE CURRENTLY NO TUITION REFUNDS AVAILABLE TO STUDENTS.

5. Loans: If a student obtains a loan to pay for their fees, that student has full responsibility for repaying the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If a student receives federal student financial aid funds, they are entitled to a refund of amounts not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If a student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- (a) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the student is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- (b) The student may not be eligible for any other federal or state student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

6. Governing Law:

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California only. Any unresolved dispute that is related to this Agreement and has not been amicably resolved shall be brought before a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, which will have sole jurisdiction in this regard.

7. Termination Date: This Agreement will terminate as follows:

A.S Degree: Five (5) years from the date studies commence.

B.S Degree: Ten (10) years from the date studies commence.

Graduate Degree: Five (5) years from the date studies commence.

Students must have completed the Degree Program of study prior to the Termination Date. Failure to do so will result in termination of a student's enrollment.

Extensions of the time to complete a degree will be considered on a case-by-case basis, upon proof of extenuating circumstances. There are no special charges or fees associated with making a request for a special review or for extending enrollment.

Information on reinstatement procedures is contained in the University Catalog.

8. University Obligations

University of the People offers a unique, exclusively online learning experience that combines peer-based and collaborative learning with information technologies and the internet. All learning takes place online, and courses take place over a nine-week term. Each term has eight weekly learning units and a four-day period for preparing for and taking the final exam. The weekly study units are made available one week at a time at the start of the new Learning Week and students always have access to the completed units. Via the Virtual Learning Environment, students share resources, exchange ideas, discuss weekly topics, submit assignments, and take exams.

To ensure the integrity and academic excellence of the University, and to ensure that students derive maximum benefit from their program of studies at the University, the University is obliged to:

- (a) implement its mission and institutional goals;
- (b) deliver up-to-date and high-quality academic programs and instructional materials, and ensure that academic standards are maintained;
- (c) provide a comprehensive curriculum and courses to enable students to earn sufficient credits toward their degree program;

- (d) provide student services, academic advising and ancillary support services to help students complete their studies successfully;
- (e) maintain its technological systems to enable students to access their courses, records, forms and University information;
- (f) evaluate and improve its programs, courses and services;
- (g) provide accurate and truthful information regarding its programs and services;
- (h) uphold all University policies and procedures and apply these fairly;
- (i) maintain and protect student records and privacy; all in accordance with the University's Privacy Policy;
- (j) ensure the engagement of competent and qualified University directors, officials, faculty and employees; and
- (k) manage the University's affairs ethically, financially, responsibly and in full compliance with the law.

9. Student Obligations

To ensure the integrity and academic excellence of the University and to ensure that each student derives maximum benefit from his or her program of studies at the University, students are obliged to:

- (a) read and comply with the Code of Conduct (set out in the University Catalog and other provisions of the University Catalog (including those in relation to the matters restated here);
- (b) comply with all other University policies, requirements and procedures;
- (c) conduct coursework with integrity, including submitting their own original work;
- (d) conduct themselves in a professional manner, treat all other students, faculty, volunteers and administrators with respect, and refrain from any behavior that may be deemed to be offensive, discriminatory, threatening, bullying or deliberate embarrassment or harassment of others;
- (e) refrain from engaging in deceptive, dishonest or fraudulent behavior, including encouraging or inducing another applicant or student to engage in such behavior;
- (f) comply with the instructions in the course syllabus and the reasonable directions of instructors;
- (g) participate actively in class, course and discussion forums;
- (h) submit assignments and coursework on time and as required;
- (i) fulfill peer assessor responsibilities fairly, non-competitively and professionally;

- (j) maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress as described in the University Catalog; and
- (k) meet all financial obligations to the University.

10. Student Tuition Recovery Fund

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION REGARDING THE STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND IS DISCLOSED TO STUDENTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CALIFORNIA PRIVATE POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION ACT (THE “ACT”)

“The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.”

Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to: Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833, P.O. Box 980818, W. Sacramento, CA 95798-0818, www.bppe.ca.gov, Phone: (916) 431-6959, Toll Free: (888) 370-7589, Fax: (916) 263-1897.

11. Complaints

For internal grievances, grade appeals and complaints about academic issues, students should refer to procedures, including the grievance procedure outlined in the University Catalog. Nothing in the grievance procedure should be taken as precluding any right that the student may have to seek any contractual or other legal remedies.

A student or any member of the public may file a complaint about this institution with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education by calling (toll free: (888) 370-7589) or by completing a complaint form, which can be obtained on the Bureau's Internet Web site (<http://www.bppe.ca.gov>).

Complaints may also be made with the University's accrediting body, the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC), concerning non-compliance with DEAC standards and policies. Where issues of educational services, student services, or tuition are concerned, the DEAC requires that a student complainant demonstrate that he or she has taken the appropriate procedures to resolve the complaint with the institution (which may include claim numbers, grievance files and emails) prior to filing a claim with the DEAC. Further information regarding accreditation-related complaints with the DEAC can be obtained on the DEAC website (<http://www.deac.org>) or by calling the DEAC at (202) 234-5100.

Where issues of educational quality or compliance with DEAC standards or policies are not central to the complaint, DEAC will refer the complainant to the appropriate federal or state agency or private entity with jurisdiction over the subject matter of the complaint. A list of these agencies appears on the University's website and University Catalog.
